ABSTRACT

There is a bond between the African-American Religion and the white Christianity in USA. The blacks prefer to follow the white Christianity, and in ignorance, afflict their sons and daughters; this inclines the kids specially girls of the same community to become blonde with white skin and blue eyes. This diversion of the blacks to forget their own historical past which has details of their Gods and Goddesses, who look like humble human beings, is noteworthy to make them aware in the 21st century about their flaw.
