

USER'S BEHAVIOUR FOR USER STUDIES AND USER EDUCATION IN ACADEMIC LIBRARIES

K. NEDUMARAN

Librarian, GRT Group of Educational Institution, Tiruttani, India

ABSTRACT

The role of library professionals; in creating awareness and guiding the users in locating the required information, through User Education (UE) programmes Character and objective of the user education and how to educate the user. Need of user education, type of user and User attitudes and behaviours in this planning and programmed of user education different kinds of user education specification if user education nature of user education and information displayed containing information about opening hours. Library information rules, Library timings, staff maintained. Online services practice workshop. Advertising papers, journals, posters, pamphlets Author tries to stress upon the dire need to provide training to the present day end-user to explore the information, which is available in various sources and in different forms, especially in electronic/digital form.

KEYWORDS: User Behaviours, User Education, User Character Type of Users