

ANGEL IN THE HOUSE

NIRAJA SARASWAT

Reader, Swami Keshvanand Institute of Technology, Management & Gramathan, Jaipur, India

ABSTRACT

My research paper entitled as 'Angel in the House' discusses motherly heroines in Shaw's plays. Throughout his career Shaw served as a vigorous exponent of women's freedom to be themselves, to liberate them from their traditional roles and traditional subservience. Women in this category are working women as well as agents of Life Force. They have the moral attributes of devotion and self sacrifice for the common good of society.

KEYWORDS: Motherhood, 'Feminine Warmth', Harshness and Aggressive Manners of the Modern Feminists